on the instant application, which would extend beyond the expiration date of the full statutory term defined in 35 U.S.C. 154 to 156 and 173, as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer, of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,444,907; U.S. Patent No. 6,555,750; and U.S. Patent 6,737,584.

The owner hereby agrees that any patent so granted on the instant application shall be enforceable only for and during such period that it and the prior patents are commonly owned. This agreement runs with any patent granted on the instant application and is binding upon grantee, its successors and/or assigns.

In making the above disclaimer, the owner does not disclaim the terminal part of any patent granted on the instant application that would extend to the expiration of the full statutory term as defined in 35 U.S.C. 154 to 156 and 173 of the prior patents, as presently shorted by any terminal disclaimer, in the event that they later expire for failure to pay maintenance fees, are held unenforceable, are found invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, are statutorily disclaimed in whole or terminally disclaimed under 37 C.F.R. 1.321, have all claims cancelled by a reexamination certificate, are reissued, or in any manner terminated prior to the expiration of their full statutory term as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer.

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.

The undersigned is an attorney of record. The owner/applicant is a small entity. The terminal disclaimer fee of $55.00 may be charged to Deposit Account No. 19-4512.

The Patent and Trademark Office wording for the terminal disclaimer was unchanged.
